

News and Notes

COBERLY

Jennifer Coberly received the Dade County Bar Association's Sookie Williams Award for Exemplary Service to the Miami-Dade Legal Community for her many years of service to the Florida Association for Women Lawyers, the DCBA, and the Bar's Board of Governors and for her work on judicial independence and diversity matters.

Fabienne Fahnestock of Gunster Yoakley's Ft. Lauderdale office became a member of the Children's Cancer Caring Center Advisory Board. She will be working with the board to make decisions on the direction of the organization, which is dedicated to providing free medical care to needy families of children with cancer in South Florida and throughout Latin America.

FAHNSTOCK

Jeanette Hausler of Miami received the 2006 Alumna of Distinction Award from the University of Miami School of Law. Connie Quinlivan of Miami received the 2006 Ray E. Pearson GAL Award for her advocacy as a guardian ad litem.

QUINLIVAN

Patricia Donlevy-Rosen and Howard D. Rosen, both of Coral Gables, presented "Asset Protection in View of the 2005 Bankruptcy Act." Donlevy-Rosen presented the topic in Neptune, New Jersey, and Rosen presented the topic in Ft. Lauderdale.

Thomas P. Scarritt, Jr., of Tampa was reappointed to the Florida Commission on Ethics by House Speaker Allan Bense.

Jeffrey A. Adelman of Adelman & Adelman in Coral Springs was voted Small Business Person of the Year by the Tamarac Chamber of Commerce.

ADELMAN

Merrick L. Gross of Akerman Senterfitt's Miami office is the new President of the Dade County Bar Association.

TRAUMAN

Brian P. Trauman of Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw in New York presented "Complying with the IRS Transfer Pricing Regulations" at an ATLAS conference in Baltimore.

Spencer Levine, director of the Florida Medicaid Fraud Control Unit in Tallahassee, spoke about "Economic Crime in Health Care in the 21st Century" at the St. Thomas School of Law; and "Florida Healthcare Fraud Laws and Recent Developments" at the ABA's 16th National Institute on Health Care Fraud.

Brian Seymour of Gunster Yoakley's West Palm Beach office received the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County's Young Leadership Award in recognition of his dedication to Jewish philanthropy and his commitment to the Young Leadership Division.

SEYMOUR

The Tampa Bay Trial Lawyers Association presented a check for $10,000