TAMARAC
Chamber of Commerce

The Tamarac Chamber of Commerce is proud to recognize Jeffrey Adelman of Adelman and Adelman, P.A. as our Small Business Person of the Year. Jeff is a valued member of our Board of Directors as well as our chamber attorney. He also developed, implemented and facilitates our Tam-Net referral group.

Jeff graduated from Nova Southeastern University and immediately joined his father's law firm. Jeff served as a Guardian Ad Litem for Broward County working as an advocate for children in foster care programs and as a certified legal intern with the Broward County Public Defender's Office in the Juvenile Division. His other community involvement includes writing legal columns for the Coral Springs / Parkland Forum and judging mock trials for Nova Law School. He is a valued member of the Broward County Trial Lawyers Association, Broward County Bar Association, Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers, the Florida Bar and the Federal Bar for the Southern District of Florida.

Jeffrey handles personal injury claims as well as disputes involving insurance, real estate issues and commercial litigation. Jeff states, "It is very satisfying to me to help people through difficult times in their lives. I encourage people I represent to call me anytime they have a problem, even if they are not related to the matter I am handling. As a result, I stay in touch with people for many years. It is those types of relationships that bring me the most satisfaction in what I do."
